

Colin Say & Co P/L

Colin Say & Co and Say & Co Rural extend our thanks to our loyal customers for their continued support through Covid 2020. The undoubted highlight of 2020 was the not surprisingly unpredicted drought breaking rains in January/February. Timing was everything as parched country side burst back to life and livestock responded in amazing fashion.

A combination of stock shortages, an outstanding winter season and a desire by producers to get back on track as quickly as possible drove stock prices to a November high.

Government stimulus and agricultures undeniable importance continues to drive values with land, livestock and all things rural performing strongly in the pandemic year. The outlook for 2021 hinges on seasonal conditions and the political challenges facing our exporters and marketers going forward.

Livestock Options

We have experienced lot feeders who have helped us in the past couple of years if you would like to custom feed some livestock contact one of our team to discuss this option. Colin Say & Co continue to achieve outstanding results for clients using the AuctionPlus platform for lines of cattle and sheep.

Alternatively monthly store cattle sales are conducted in Inverell at the IRLX 2nd Thursday of each month at 10am.

Early weaning (suggest ideally 5 months) has proven a great option for producers enabling management efficiencies. Consider 'quiet wean'.

QuietWean

Low stress wean your calves, in two easy steps!

www.quietwean.com

QuietWean gradually breaks the cow-calf bond over just a few days, while pairs are still together. Virtually eliminates bawling and aimless walking! Increases time spent eating post-weaning!

Please note:

The Colin Say & Co office will be closed for the Christmas period

BLOWFLIES AND BULLDUST

LARRY'S barn burned down and his wife Susan called the insurance company.

Susan told the insurance company, "We had that barn insured for $50,000 and I want my money."

"Whoa there, just a minute, Susan, insurance doesn't work quite like that," the agent responded.

"We will ascertain the value of what was insured and provide you with a new one of comparable worth."

There was a long pause before Susan replied.

"Then I'd like to cancel the policy on my husband," she said.
